ROMEO & JULIET

Royal Opera House Live

Shakespeare's romantic tragedy launches an exciting season of ballet and opera screenings from the Royal Opera House.

Set to Prokofiev's magnificent score, Kenneth MacMillan's ground-breaking version of this ballet in three acts is rich in the swaggering colour of Verona street life, in sword fights and celebrations. But it has the complex emotions of the young lovers at its heart - from the delirious happiness of first love to the stunned reality of their fate.

A fabulous opportunity to see outstanding ballet recorded live from Covent Garden.

EVERY BRILLIANT THING

Paines Plough and Pentabus Theatre Company
In the round in the Function Hall

You're six years old. Mum's in hospital. Dad says she's 'done something stupid'.

So you start to make a list of everything that's brilliant about the world.

1. Ice Cream; 2. Kung Fu Movies;
3. Laughing so hard you shoot milk out your nose.

You leave it on her pillow. And soon the list takes on a life of its own…

Since arriving on the British theatre scene a year ago, this universally praised production has played two national tours and a run in New York. Unmissable!

JONATHAN DIMBLEBY

The Battle of the Atlantic:
How the Allies Won the War

The Battle of the Atlantic was crucial to the Allied victory in World War II. If the German U-boats had prevailed, the maritime artery across the Atlantic would have been severed preventing the Allied armies from joining the invasion of Europe. There would have been no D-Day.

In The Battle of the Atlantic, Jonathan Dimbleby interweaves fascinating contemporary diaries and letters, from senior members of the competing High Commands down to the humblest sailor, to tell the epic story of the decisions that led to victory.

LISNEY PIANO DUO

James Lisney & Sarah Beth Briggs
South Holland Concerts

Sarah Beth Briggs became one of the youngest finalists in the BBC Young Musicians Competition at eleven years old. Since then she has pursued a distinguished career, and both she and James Lisney have international reputations as concert pianists.

As a piano duo they make a particular focus on Mozart and Schubert - and their programme includes pieces by these two favourites as well as one of Dvorak's haunting Slavonic dances, and popular suites by Fauré and Debussy.

FAMILY PLANNING

SADOS

This laugh-out-loud epic is one of Frank Vickery's best comedies with misunderstandings and mishaps from start to finish.

Tracy receives some unexpected news, but isn't sure who to share it with: her solid dependable Mam, her hypochondriac Dad or her boyfriend?

No, best confide in Gran. She's permanently ensconced in bed on stage… she'll know just what to do!

Wed 18 to Sat 21 November

Begins: 7.30pm
Duration: 2hrs
Price: £12
Discounts: £10 under 16s & over 60s, disabled & companion

FRONT COUNTRY

When Bob Harris played tracks from Front Country's memorable debut album Sake of The Sound on BBC Radio 2, he told listeners they were "currently the biggest band on the bluegrass scene in America" and he was right.

This authentic U.S. bluegrass band have been blowing the socks off everyone coast-to-coast and received praise across the board for their sensational individual instrumental performances, their arrangements of Country classics, super tight vocal harmonies and high standard of the self-penned material. What better way to start the week. Yee-ha!

FUNHOUSE COMEDY CLUB

In the Function Hall

Funhouse Comedy's second date of the season is headlined by comedian and script writer Sean Percival who confronts realism in an explosively funny way. His down to earth act is bang up to date with its upfront attitude and gags galore.

Supporting will be energetic Vince Atta - he is permanently on a high with his variety of anecdotes, stories and observations. The warm and confident Suzy Bennett completes the line-up, all held together by compere Lloyd Griffith.

RHYTHMIC ROUTES

Scarlet Community Music Club

This evening concert is the culmination of the Rhythmic Routes project run by Scarlet Community Music Club. After percussion and drumming master classes during the day, come and see an amazing finale performance featuring community musicians and a very special master class by drummer Pat Garvey which will also feature a Q&A session with music industry guests.

Please note this event is being filmed.

BOOKING INFORMATION

Payment
Payment for tickets can be made by cash, cheque (made payable to South Holland District Council) or most credit or debit cards during box office hours. Or you can book and pay for tickets online 24 hours a day at www.southhollandcentre.co.uk
A booking fee of £1.50 applies for online bookings (for up to 9 tickets)

Reservations
Reservations will be held for up to 5 days or half an hour before the start of a performance, whichever is earlier. We reserve the right to sell any uncollected tickets.

Tickets
Tickets can either be held at the box office or sent to you by post. If you require the latter, a small charge of 65p will be made for this service and should be included with your payment. Alternatively, you can enclose a stamped addressed envelope. ID will be required and a charge of 60p will be made to reissue lost tickets.

Concessions
Where offered, concessions are generally available for the following people: over 60s, children 16 years and under, full time students and those in receipt of unemployment and long-term sickness benefits (and if incapacity benefit, their carers when accompanying). Concessions also apply to young people under 26 and groups where shown. Please ask for eligibility details at the box office. Proof of eligibility may be required.

Children
Children are very welcome at the South Holland Centre. Films, shows and workshops for children are a regular part of our programme. The Café Bar offers high chairs and a special children's menu. Baby changing facilities are also available. Please note that children aged 10 years and under must be accompanied by a person aged 16 or above in the auditorium. Under 2s free of charge when sharing an adult seat.

Access
There is ramped access to the entrance doors and passenger lift access to all floors. Wheelchair spaces are available on both auditorium floors. Please inform the Box Office at the time of booking. Please note that wheelchair seats are not bookable online. Please select the 'Accessible Seating Request' link from the online booking page or call the Box Office to discuss your requirements. For Induction Loop, please switch hearing aids to the 'T' position (Please note: this facility is not available for live music events, including Musical Theatre events with a live band). A number of booster seats are available.

Refunds
A full refund will be given on tickets returned at least 28 days before the event. If you return your tickets within 28 days of the event, refunds will only be possible when the tickets can be resold.

Parking
Parking during the daytime and evening - easy access from Broad Street Car Park (Herring Lane), pay and display. In the evening - free parking from 6pm in the Market Place and Vine Street Car Park. Additional parking is available as indicated on the map (P) just a short walk from the Centre. Nearest disabled parking is on Broad Street.

Gift Vouchers
The Centre sells gift vouchers which can be used at the majority of live events and at any cinema showing. They can be used as part or full payment for an event. Please contact the box office for details.

Family Tickets
Where a family ticket price is stated this is for four people which must include at least two children under 16. Additional under 16s pay equivalent family ticket rate.

Running Times
Where the performance duration is stated, please note that this is only an approximation.
